

ANSWER SHEET

435

Шифр участника

A	H	4	0	9	1
---	---	---	---	---	---

I. Listening

(12 points)

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
B	A	B	C	A	C	T	F	T	F	T	T

II. Reading

(15 points)

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
E	B	C	D	A	D	E	A	B	C	B	A	C	E	D

III. Use of English

(24 points)

1	are	13
2	in	14	originally
3		15	establishment
4		16	effective
5		17	inhabitants
6		18	knowledge
7		19	enjoyable
8		20	cooking
9		21	possibilities
10		22	location
11		23	requirement
12		24	recommendation

I. Listening	88	II. Reading	115	III. Use of English	105	Total	295
--------------	----	-------------	-----	---------------------	-----	-------	-----

Подпись членов жюри

[Signature]
writing 145
435

Шифр участника

A	H	-	1	0	9	1
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

~~Dear sirs,~~

I am writing about my favourite restaurant in our town. It is situated in Ulyanovsk, near the school of foreign languages "Volga Dnepr".

Well, you can get there by anyone kind of transport; by publik transport, by your own car or by foot exactly. The name of this restaurant is "Kinza".

I was there 3 times ^{and} ~~but~~ I really like it. I can say that in "Kinza" all dishes ^{is} really tasty.

Also ~~I can say that~~ this place has peaceful and cozy atmosphere, so you can spend time there with ^{your} friends or relatives and have a fun.

Frankly speaking, the main dishes there are sushi and rolls and I can say that it is my favourite food, I can eat it almost every day.

As for service, the waitors ~~are~~ very polite and kind, also they work ~~very~~ quickly. Well, prices there ^{is} really nice, they are not expensive.

In conclusion, I want to say that I recommend ~~to~~ everyone to visit this place and I think you will like it.

logic
gr
lex
5 mist

148

I. Listening

Time: 15 minutes

You will hear an interview with a teenager called Amy Manero, who is talking about her interest in music, particularly jazz piano. For each question, choose the correct answer A, B or C. (6 points)

1. When did Amy have lessons with a piano teacher?

A at the age of four

B before she started secondary school

C after getting advice from her school music teacher

2. How did Amy feel at her first big public event?

A excited because she was wearing a wonderful costume

B nervous because it was her first time on stage

C surprised because the audience was very big

3. What does Amy say about playing jazz with the school band?

A She was better at it than the rest of the players

B She put lots of effort into learning about it

C She enjoyed it as soon as she started

4. Amy gives piano lessons so that she can

A help people who couldn't normally afford them

B encourage lots of young people to play the piano

C improve her own playing technique

5. Why does Amy write a blog on the internet?

A to get some experience for becoming a journalist

B to tell people about her daily life as a musician

C to recommend events for people to go to

6. Why does Amy love music so much?

A People can understand it whatever their language

B She meets people she likes through playing it

C It brings together people of different ages

You will hear a boy, Jack, and a girl, Mandy, talking programmes on TV.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, choose the letter T (true) for YES. If it is not correct, choose the letter F (false) for NO.

(6 points)

7 Mandy knows that Jack is a fan of sports programmes on TV.

8 Mandy accepts Jack's invitation to watch a sports programme at his house.

9 Jack agrees with Mandy that there's currently too much sport on TV.

10 Jack thinks TV sports programmes encourage young people to take up sport.

11 Mandy suggests that Jack should take part in more sports activities.

12 Jack persuades Mandy to watch him perform in a sporting event soon.

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

II. Reading

Time: 30 minutes

You are going to read a newspaper article about people who have no brothers or sisters. For questions 1-15, choose from the people (A- E). The people may be chosen more than once. (15 points).

5 A. Sam Thompson, aged 10

When my mum's friend had a baby, it made me think about being an only child for the first time. I thought, would I like to have brothers and sisters? However, to be honest, my friend's sister looked quite annoying - he was always having to watch her and I decided I was better off on my own. There are many good things about being an only child. I have privacy, and I like that; some of my friends have to share a bedroom and I know that will never happen to me. Moreover, I get time on my own with Mum and Dad, and that's special.

One thing that is good is that my friend Thomas lives really close by, so it's easy for me to go and see him. I'd be happy to have just one child, but I'd always make sure we lived close to other kids.

2; 11 B. Bethany Shaw, aged 15

One of the bad things about being an only child when you're young is the reaction you get from other people. They think you're spoilt - you see that look in their eyes. Then you have to prove you're not spoilt, although you know you're not and nor are most only children.

When I was little my friends thought I was lucky being an only one, but now when I tell friends I can tell they're thinking, that must be hard... she's not got a sister to go shopping with, or a brother to help with her homework. All my friends have brothers and sisters and it can be a bit lonely. In general, I think the negatives outweigh the positives, but on the other hand, it's all I've known and I'm OK with it.

10 C. Leah Mitchell, aged 29

I went away to school when I was seven, and the hardest thing I found was making friends. Because I was an only child, I just didn't know how to do it. The thing is that when you're an only child you're often the only child in a gathering of adults. I found being an only child interesting, in that it gave me a place at the grown-ups' table and gave me a view into their world that children in a big family might not get. Moreover, I know it has, at least partly, made me into the person I am: I never like the idea of being one of a group, for example. I'm not comfortable with being one of a gang.

D. Laura Arnold, aged 36

I was a happy child, I had the undivided love and attention of two people, and it made me very confident and secure. I know some only children feel stifled by their parents' constant demands and worries, but that wasn't my experience. I found being an only child enriching, which I think is mainly because we get on so well. I've got two children now and I do find that scary. The problem is I've absolutely no experience of this kind of situation; nothing in my past has prepared me for having to divide myself between the needs of these two little people, and the guilt is hard when I feel I've not been there enough for one of them. And on a practical level, things like sibling rivalry are going to be a whole new ball game.

E. Jasmine Weller, aged 49

I always felt a little odd, and assumed it was something about me. It was only in my 30s, when I was training to be a psychotherapist, that I found myself with a group of only children, describing our experiences. It was a revelation because it made me realise that other people felt many of the same things. Growing up in a small unit means we need time to ourselves, which can cause problems with partners and friends, who might misinterpret it as rejection. There are pluses too. Being on your own helps you to become resourceful, and develop your imagination and creativity.

Which person

1. realises that the positive relationship they had with their parents is something that not all only children have?
2. thinks people make a judgement about only children which is mistaken?
3. thinks being an only child has determined a particular characteristic of their personality?
4. says they accept their situation because they don't know anything different?
5. realises that the company of other children is important for only children?
6. finds their present circumstances a challenge?
7. says that only children have needs which can be difficult for others to deal with?
8. realised at a particular point that they were happy being an only child?
9. was unaware that their reactions to being an only child were not unique?
10. had problems as a child because they lacked a necessary skill?
11. has the opinion that there are more disadvantages than advantages?

Ан - 1091

III. Use of English

Time: 20 minutes

For questions 1-12, read the text below and think of the word which best fits each gap. Use only one word in each gap. (13 points)

Singing in a choir.

The benefits of singing in a choir (1) are numerous. (2) In range from the social; having the opportunity to make new friends, to the physical benefits of learning to breathe properly. Research has also shown that young people (3) _____ sing in choirs do better (4) _____ their studies and have a tendency to be healthier.

But the first question you should ask yourself (5) _____ you are considering joining a choir is "can you sing in tune?". (6) _____ might seem obvious, but unless you can, (7) _____ is little point in seeking out a choir because you'll only get rejected.

(8) _____ choir you apply to join is (9) _____ to want to audition you. Don't worry if you can't read music, that can (10) _____ taught later. If you're accepted, you'll find choir practices to be hard work, but great fun, because they're social events as much as music training. You'll learn to read music (11) _____ how to sing with confidence (12) _____ voice and technique will develop, probably quite quickly with proper instruction, and you may just end up wondering (13) _____ you didn't do this years ago.

Read the text below. Use the word given in capitals at the end of some of the lines to form a word that fits in the gap in the same line. (11 points)

Abroad with us.

The company Study Abroad was (14) originally founded in 1991 for students who wished to study French in France. Its success led to the (15) establishment of other schools around the world.	14. ORIGIN 15. ESTABLISH
Learning a language in the country in which it is spoken is, of course, a far more (16) effective and faster process than studying in your own country. It is also an opportunity to mix with local (17) inhabitants and acquire a greater and deeper (18) knowledge of the people whose language you are studying. This makes the whole experience much more (19) enjoyable.	16. EFFECT 17. INHABIT 18. KNOW 19. ENJOY 20. COOK

Всероссийская олимпиада школьников по английскому языку.

2023/2024 учебный год - Школьный этап – Бланк заданий - 10-11 класс

- C
- E
12. enjoys having space that is their own?
 13. thinks they developed a better understanding of adults because of being an only child?
 14. mentions a positive benefit of spending a lot of time alone?
 15. is aware that other people feel sorry for them?

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

ANSWER SHEET

528

Шифр участника

A	H	-	1	1	9	3
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

I. Listening

(12 points)

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
B	C	B	B	C	A	T	F	F	F	T	T

II. Reading

(15 points)

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
D	B	C	B	A	D	A	D	E	C	B	A	C	E	E

III. Use of English

(24 points)

1	are	13	why
2		14	originally
3	who	15
4		16	effective
5	when	17	inhabits
6	bring it	18	knowledge
7		19	enjoyable
8		20	cooking
9		21	possibilities
10	be	22	location
11	and	23
12	your	24	recommendations

I. Listening	II. Reading	III. Use of English	Total
118	125	150	38

Подпись членов жюри

[Signature]

+148

IV. Writing

Шифр участника

A	H	-	1	1	9	3
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

I am a big fan of restaurants, so I want to give you my review and recommend you my favourite restaurant, so you can enjoy it too.

My favourite restaurant in town is the Italian restaurant, which is located on the main walking street in the center of our town. You can find it really easily, this restaurant is placed near the city administration building. I think this restaurant is the best place, that you can visit to dinner with your friends ~~or~~ family. The dishes here are very tasty and always made of fresh and natural food. The atmosphere and the meals makes you feel like you are somewhere far away in Italy, sitting on a street cafe with your closest one's ~~and~~ and having the best time ever. Also, the classical music, which is played by a real-life quartet of musicians helps you to relax and feel cozy and comfortable.

If you would like to feel the cozy atmosphere and taste ~~to~~ Italian food, this place ~~was~~ ^{was} made for you!

gr //

sp /

145

I. Listening

Time: 15 minutes

You will hear an interview with a teenager called Amy Manero, who is talking about her interest in music, particularly jazz piano. For each question, choose the correct answer A, B or C. (6 points)

1. When did Amy have lessons with a piano teacher?

A at the age of four

B before she started secondary school

C after getting advice from her school music teacher

2. How did Amy feel at her first big public event?

A excited because she was wearing a wonderful costume

B nervous because it was her first time on stage

C surprised because the audience was very big

many people

3. What does Amy say about playing jazz with the school band?

A She was better at it than the rest of the players

B She put lots of effort into learning about it

C She enjoyed it as soon as she started

4. Amy gives piano lessons so that she can

A help people who couldn't normally afford them

B encourage lots of young people to play the piano

C improve her own playing technique

5. Why does Amy write a blog on the internet?

A to get some experience for becoming a journalist

B to tell people about her daily life as a musician

C to recommend events for people to go to

- 6. Why does Amy love music so much?
 - A People can understand it whatever their language
 - B She meets people she likes through playing it
 - C It brings together people of different ages

You will hear a boy, Jack, and a girl, Mandy, talking programmes on TV.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, choose the letter T (true) for YES. If it is not correct, choose the letter F (false) for NO.

(6 points)

- T 7 Mandy knows that Jack is a fan of sports programmes on TV.
- F 8 Mandy accepts Jack's invitation to watch a sports programme at his house.
- ? T 9 Jack agrees with Mandy that there's currently too much sport on TV.
- F 10 Jack thinks TV sports programmes encourage young people to take up sport.
- не зан, T 11 Mandy suggests that Jack should take part in more sports activities.
- T 12 Jack persuades Mandy to watch him perform in a sporting event soon.

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

II. Reading

Time: 30 minutes

You are going to read a newspaper article about people who have no brothers or sisters. For questions 1-15, choose from the people (A- E). The people may be chosen more than once. (15 points).

8 A. Sam Thompson, aged 10

When my mum's friend had a baby, it made me think about being an only child for the first time. I thought, would I like to have brothers and sisters? However, to be honest, my friend's sister looked quite annoying - he was always having to watch her and I decided I was better off on my own. There are many good things about being an only child. I have privacy, and I like that; some of my friends have to share a bedroom and I know that will never happen to me. Moreover, I get time on my own with Mum and Dad, and that's special.

One thing that is good is that my friend Thomas lives really close by, so it's easy for me to go and see him. I'd be happy to have just one child, but I'd always make sure we lived close to other kids.

B. Bethany Shaw, aged 15

One of the bad things about being an only child when you're young is the reaction you get from other people. They think you're spoilt - you see that look in their eyes. Then you have to prove you're not spoilt, although you know you're not and nor are most only children.

When I was little my friends thought I was lucky being an only one, but now when I tell friends I can tell they're thinking, that must be hard... she's not got a sister to go shopping with, or a brother to help with her homework. All my friends have brothers and sisters and it can be a bit lonely. In general, I think the negatives outweigh the positives, but on the other hand, it's all I've known and I'm OK with it.

C. Leah Mitchell, aged 29

I went away to school when I was seven, and the hardest thing I found was making friends. Because I was an only child, I just didn't know how to do it. The thing is that when you're an only child you're often the only child in a gathering of adults. I found being an only child interesting, in that it gave me a place at the grown-ups' table and gave me a view into their world that children in a big family might not get. Moreover, I know it has, at least partly, made me into the person I am: I never like the idea of being one of a group, for example. I'm not comfortable with being one of a gang.

D. Laura Arnold, aged 36

I was a happy child, I had the undivided love and attention of two people, and it made me very confident and secure. I know some only children feel stifled by their parents' constant demands and worries, but that wasn't my experience. I found being an only child enriching, which I think is mainly because we get on so well. I've got two children now and I do find that scary. The problem is I've absolutely no experience of this kind of situation; nothing in my past has prepared me for having to divide myself between the needs of these two little people, and the guilt is hard when I feel I've not been there enough for one of them. And on a practical level, things like sibling rivalry are going to be a whole new ball game.

E. Jasmine Weller, aged 49

I always felt a little odd, and assumed it was something about me. It was only in my 30s, when I was training to be a psychotherapist, that I found myself with a group of only children, describing our experiences. It was a revelation because it made me realise that other people felt many of the same things. Growing up in a small unit means we need time to ourselves, which can cause problems with partners and friends, who might misinterpret it as rejection. There are pluses too. Being on your own helps you to become resourceful, and develop your imagination and creativity.

3A, 2B, 1D, 3C

2-A e-3
3-B D-3
E-2

Which person

- ~~D~~ 1. realises that the positive relationship they had with their parents is something that not all only children have?
- ~~B~~ 2. thinks people make a judgement about only children which is mistaken?
- ~~C~~ 3. thinks being an only child has determined a particular characteristic of their personality?
- ~~(1)B~~ 4. says they accept their situation because they don't know anything different?
- ~~A~~ 5. realises that the company of other children is important for only children?
- ~~D~~ 6. finds their present circumstances a challenge?
7. says that only children have needs which can be difficult for others to deal with?
- ~~D~~ 8. realised at a particular point that they were happy being an only child?
- ~~E~~ 9. was unaware that their reactions to being an only child were not unique?
- ~~C~~ 10. had problems as a child because they lacked a necessary skill?
- ~~B~~ 11. has the opinion that there are more disadvantages than advantages?

- A 12. enjoys having space that is their own?
- C 13. thinks they developed a better understanding of adults because of being an only child?
- E 14. mentions a positive benefit of spending a lot of time alone?
15. is aware that other people feel sorry for them?

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

III. Use of English

Time: 20 minutes

For questions 1-12, read the text below and think of the word which best fits each gap. Use only one word in each gap. (13 points)

Singing in a choir.

The benefits of singing in a choir (1) are numerous. (2) _____ range from the social; having the opportunity to make new friends, to the physical benefits of learning to breathe properly. Research has also shown that young people (3) who sing in choirs do better (4) _____ their studies and have a tendency to be healthier.

But the first question you should ask yourself (5) if when you are considering joining a choir is "can you sing in tune?". (6) Singing might seem obvious, but unless you can, (7) _____ is little point in seeking out a choir because you'll only get rejected.

(8) _____ choir you apply to join is (9) _____ to want to audition you. Don't worry if you can't read music, that can (10) be taught later. If you're accepted, you'll find choir practices to be hard work, but great fun, because they're social events as much as music training. You'll learn to read music (11) and how to sing with confidence (12) your voice and technique will develop, probably quite quickly with proper instruction, and you may just end up wondering (13) why you didn't do this years ago.

Read the text below. Use the word given in capitals at the end of some of the lines to form a word that fits in the gap in the same line. (11 points)

Abroad with us.

The company Study Abroad was (14) originally founded in 1991 for students who wished to study French in France. Its success led to the (15) _____ of other schools around the world.	14. ORIGIN 15. ESTABLISH
Learning a language in the country in which it is spoken is, of course, a far more (16) effective and faster process than studying in your own country. It is also an opportunity to mix with local (17) _____ and acquire a greater and deeper (18) knowledge of the people whose language you are studying. This makes the whole experience much more (19) enjoyable	16. EFFECT 17. INHABIT 18. KNOW 19. ENJOY 20. COOK

You may wish to attend an Italian language and (20) working course in Italy or combine a Portuguese course with a sport. You should look at all the (21) possibilities and make the best choice. In order to choose the right course and (22) location for you, we suggest you contact us to discuss your particular (23) _____. From the information you give us, we can make some (24) recommendation.	21. POSSIBLE 22. LOCATE 23. REQUIRE 24. RECOMMEND
--	--

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

IV. Writing

Time: 35 minutes

You have read this announcement in your college magazine. (20 points)

“Do you have a favourite restaurant in town? If so, why not write a review for our Free time section, telling other readers what the establishment is like and giving us a recommendation? The three best reviews will receive a prize of 50.”

Write a review. Write 120-180

Don't forget:

- name and type of restaurant;
- where situated;
- explanation of how to get there;
- your overall opinion of it;
- particular dishes the restaurant serves & your opinion;
- the décor, service;
- things you particularly like & price(s);
- a general recommendation.

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

ANSWER SHEET

Шифр участника

A	N	-	/	/	9	6
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

648

I. Listening

(12 points)

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
B	C	B	B	C	A	T	F	F	F	T	T

II. Reading

(15 points)

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
D	B	C	B	A	D	E	A	E	C	B	A	C	E	B

III. Use of English

(24 points)

1	are	13	why
2	It	14	originally
3	who	15	reestablishment
4	in	16	effective
5	while	17	inflation
6	It	18	knowledge
7	there	19	enjoyable
8	The	20	cooking
9	going	21	possibilities
10	be	22	location
11	and	23	requirement
12	your	24	recommendations

I. Listening	II. Reading	III. Use of English	Total
116	150	195	458

195

Подпись членов жюри _____

Шифр участника

A	H	-	1	1	9	6
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

I do not really appreciate going to fancy restaurants, but this one just blew my mind away!

It is "CHICKO", where whole thing is about Korean culture. It is situated in the centre of the town, near the hotel "Venec", which you can use as a point to go from, because the hotel is really eye-catching and the restaurant is only about 200 metres from it. The building looks fascinating both inside and outside, so you will definitely notice it.

I should aware that dishes the restaurant serves are from Korean national food, which might be too spicy for someone unprepared. The decor is easy and pleasant for eyes, waiters are always polite and helpful.

I especially liked the prices - for the new restaurant they are surprisingly low.

To sum up, I will recommend you to visit "CHICKO" if you are a fan of Korean culture and can easily handle spicy food.

1 / ex 1

196

I. Listening

Time: 15 minutes

You will hear an interview with a teenager called Amy Manero, who is talking about her interest in music, particularly jazz piano. For each question, choose the correct answer A, B or C. (6 points)

1. When did Amy have lessons with a piano teacher?

A at the age of four

B before she started secondary school

C after getting advice from her school music teacher

2. How did Amy feel at her first big public event?

A excited because she was wearing a wonderful costume

B nervous because it was her first time on stage

C surprised because the audience was very big

3. What does Amy say about playing jazz with the school band?

A She was better at it than the rest of the players

B She put lots of effort into learning about it

C She enjoyed it as soon as she started

4. Amy gives piano lessons so that she can

A help people who couldn't normally afford them

B encourage lots of young people to play the piano

C improve her own playing technique

5. Why does Amy write a blog on the internet?

A to get some experience for becoming a journalist

B to tell people about her daily life as a musician

C to recommend events for people to go to

6. Why does Amy love music so much?

- A People can understand it whatever their language
- B She meets people she likes through playing it
- C It brings together people of different ages

You will hear a boy, Jack, and a girl, Mandy, talking programmes on TV.

Decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, choose the letter T (true) for YES. If it is not correct, choose the letter F (false) for NO.
(6 points)

7 Mandy knows that Jack is a fan of sports programmes on TV. ✓

8 Mandy accepts Jack's invitation to watch a sports programme at his house. ✗

9 Jack agrees with Mandy that there's currently too much sport on TV. ✗

10 Jack thinks TV sports programmes encourage young people to take up sport. ✗

11 Mandy suggests that Jack should take part in more sports activities. ✓

12 Jack persuades Mandy to watch him perform in a sporting event soon. ✓

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

II. Reading

Time: 30 minutes

You are going to read a newspaper article about people who have no brothers or sisters. For questions 1-15, choose from the people (A- E). The people may be chosen more than once. (15 points).

A. Sam Thompson, aged 10

When my mum's friend had a baby, it made me think about being an only child for the first time. I thought, would I like to have brothers and sisters? However, to be honest, my friend's sister looked quite annoying - he was always having to watch her and I decided I was better off on my own. There are many good things about being an only child. I have privacy, and I like that; some of my friends have to share a bedroom and I know that will never happen to me. Moreover, I get time on my own with Mum and Dad, and that's special.

One thing that is good is that my friend Thomas lives really close by, so it's easy for me to go and see him. I'd be happy to have just one child, but I'd always make sure we lived close to other kids.

B. Bethany Shaw, aged 15

One of the bad things about being an only child when you're young is the reaction you get from other people. They think you're spoilt - you see that look in their eyes. Then you have to prove you're not spoilt, although you know you're not and nor are most only children.

When I was little my friends thought I was lucky being an only one, but now when I tell friends I can tell they're thinking, that must be hard... she's not got a sister to go shopping with, or a brother to help with her homework. All my friends have brothers and sisters and it can be a bit lonely. In general, I think the negatives outweigh the positives, but on the other hand, it's all I've known and I'm OK with it.

C. Leah Mitchell, aged 29

I went away to school when I was seven, and the hardest thing I found was making friends. Because I was an only child, I just didn't know how to do it. The thing is that when you're an only child you're often the only child in a gathering of adults. I found being an only child interesting, in that it gave me a place at the grown-ups' table and gave me a view into their world that children in a big family might not get. Moreover, I know it has, at least partly, made me into the person I am. I never like the idea of being one of a group, for example. I'm not comfortable with being one of a gang.

D. Laura Arnold, aged 36

I was a happy child, I had the undivided love and attention of two people, and it made me very confident and secure. I know some only children feel stifled by their parents' constant demands and worries, but that wasn't my experience. I found being an only child enriching, which I think is mainly because we get on so well. I've got two children now and I do find that scary. The problem is I've absolutely no experience of this kind of situation; nothing in my past has prepared me for having to divide myself between the needs of these two little people, and the guilt is hard when I feel I've not been there enough for one of them. And on a practical level, things like sibling rivalry are going to be a whole new ball game.

E. Jasmine Weller, aged 49

I always felt a little odd, and assumed it was something about me. It was only in my 30s, when I was training to be a psychotherapist, that I found myself with a group of only children, describing our experiences. It was a revelation because it made me realise that other people felt many of the same things. Growing up in a small unit means we need time to ourselves, which can cause problems with partners and friends, who might misinterpret it as rejection. There are pluses too. Being on your own helps you to become resourceful, and develop your imagination and creativity.

Which person

1. realises that the positive relationship they had with their parents is something that not all only children have? D
2. thinks people make a judgement about only children which is mistaken? B
3. thinks being an only child has determined a particular characteristic of their personality? C
4. says they accept their situation because they don't know anything different? B?
5. realises that the company of other children is important for only children? A
6. finds their present circumstances a challenge? D
7. says that only children have needs which can be difficult for others to deal with? E
8. realised at a particular point that they were happy being an only child? A
9. was unaware that their reactions to being an only child were not unique? E
10. had problems as a child because they lacked a necessary skill? C
11. has the opinion that there are more disadvantages than advantages? B

12. enjoys having space that is their own? A
13. thinks they developed a better understanding of adults because of being an only child? C
14. mentions a positive benefit of spending a lot of time alone? E
15. is aware that other people feel sorry for them? B

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

III. Use of English

Time: 20 minutes

For questions 1-12, read the text below and think of the word which best fits each gap. Use only one word in each gap. (13 points)

Singing in a choir.

The benefits of singing in a choir (1) are numerous. (2) range from the social; having the opportunity to make new friends, to the physical benefits of learning to breathe properly. Research has also shown that young people (3) who sing in choirs do better (4) with their studies and have a tendency to be healthier.

But the first question you should ask yourself (5) while you are considering joining a choir is “can you sing in tune?”. (6) It might seem obvious, but unless you can, (7) there is little point in seeking out a choir because you'll only get rejected.

(8) the choir you apply to join is (9) likely to want to audition you. Don't worry if you can't read music, that can (10) be taught later. If you're accepted, you'll find choir practices to be hard work, but great fun, because they're social events as much as music training. You'll learn to read music (11) and how to sing with confidence. (12) your voice and technique will develop, probably quite quickly with proper instruction, and you may just end up wondering (13) why you didn't do this years ago.

Read the text below. Use the word given in capitals at the end of some of the lines to form a word that fits in the gap in the same line. (11 points)

Abroad with us.

The company Study Abroad was (14) originally founded in 1991 for students who wished to study French in France. Its success led to the (15) re-establishment of other schools around the world.	14. ORIGIN 15. ESTABLISH
Learning a language in the country in which it is spoken is, of course, a far more (16) effective and faster process than studying in your own country. It is also an opportunity to mix with local (17) inhabitants and acquire a greater and deeper (18) knowledge of the people whose language you are studying. This makes the whole experience much more (19) enjoyable	16. EFFECT 17. INHABIT 18. KNOW 19. ENJOY 20. COOK

You may wish to attend an Italian language and (20) cooking course in Italy or combine a Portuguese course with a sport. You should look at all the (21) possibilities and make the best choice. In order to choose the right course and (22) location for you, we suggest you contact us to discuss your particular (23) requirements. From the information you give us, we can make some (24) recommendations.	21. POSSIBLE 22. LOCATE 23. REQUIRE 24. RECOMMEND
---	--

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

IV. Writing

Time: 35 minutes

You have read this announcement in your college magazine. (20 points)

“Do you have a favourite restaurant in town? If so, why not write a review for our Free time section, telling other readers what the establishment is like and giving us a recommendation? The three best reviews will receive a prize of 50.”

Write a review. Write 120-180

Don't forget:

- name and type of restaurant;
- where situated;
- explanation of how to get there;
- your overall opinion of it;
- particular dishes the restaurant serves & your opinion;
- the décor, service;
- things you particularly like & price(s);
- a general recommendation.

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO YOUR ANSWER SHEET

